DIXIE FOR THE SQUTHERNER.

BEATSOSTRICH, THE TOP WEIGHT, IN A FINE RACE.

hine After Rain Surprises Vestment in the Junior Steeplechase Shady Lad a Good Thing-Griffin's Massa Wins at 40 to 1-Four Favorites Lose.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.-The Dixie Stakes, for three-year-olds, one mile and three-quarters, provided what was practically a race between The Southerner and Ostrich at Bennings track to-day, the former winning chiefly because of the great riding of George Odom. Andrew Mack was the only other starter, but he was outclassed and beaten Ostrich gave seven pounds to The Southerner, and for that reason the latter was favorite at 15 to 20, Ostrich closing at 7 to 5. Ostrich set the pace for a mile, hav ing an advantage of a length and a half. Coming out of the backstretch Odom made a quick move with The Southerner, who was on even terms with Ostrich as they straightened out for home. A furlong from home Ostrich weakened under the weight, and Shaw went to the whip, but The Southerner was tired also, so Odom was compelled to drive him to the limit to win by half a length

A povelty in steeplechasing was the Junior Stakes, for three-year-olds, at about two miles. Mr. Chamblet's Vestment was heralded as a sure winner and went to the post a 1 to 2 favorite. But Mr. Cotton's Sunshine After Rain, a 5 to 1 shot, upset all figures. He and Vertment had the race to themselves all the way, the latter leading for a mile and three-quarters, but taking the jumps in rather rior style. Then Sunshine After Rain ed the favorite and won in a drive by a length in 4:04. Knight of Elway, 20 to 1, running third, forty lengths behind. Billy Oliver out loose a good thing in the first race, at six and a half furlongs, in Shady Lad, owned by T. F. Fullum. The opening price was 7 to 1, but this was beaten down to 7 to 2, Shady Lad making all the running and winning in a drive by a head from Arsenal, 16 to 5, who was off poorly, but took place money from Alforten, 11 to 5 favorite, by three lengths. The race was run in 1:22 4-5. Ragian, who was practically left at the post, ran a fine race under the circumstances.

H. T. Griffin put Massa, a 40 to 1 shot, over the plate in the second race, for two-year-old maidens, at five furiongs. Massa, formerly owned by John E. Madden, made every post winner and beat Madden's Critical, a hot 6 to 5 choice, by two lengths in 1:02 2-5. Critical was only a neck in front of Little Buttercup, 6 to 1.

Fred Gebhard's Nuit Blanche was the favorite in the mile event for maidens, but inished a head out of the money. Weirdsome, 7 to 2, won in a gallop by four lengths, in 1:43 1-5, with Van Rosen, 3 to 1, second a length and a half before Tom Lawson, 7 Apprentices had the mounts.

W. P. Burch's Panique, an 8 to 5 favorite in the last race, for maidens of all ages, at a mile and seventy yards, was much the best and breezed home, with Shaw up, two lengths to the good. Silverfoot, 4 to 1, had an easy time taxing the place from Lord Aintree, a 60 to 1 shot, who at the half mile mark had a lead of half a dozen lengths. The time was 1:48 2-5. Form favorites, as usual, were beaten. The weather was knowery, but the track was fast and a fair crowd turned out. FIRST BACF.

Brooklyn Skating Club Applies for Reinstatement to Amateur League. The Brooklyn Skating Club, which was dropped from the Amateur Hockey League, has been reorganized and has applied for reinstatement. With this club in the league the tournament will be between five teams, as it was last year, and each team will play each of the others two games, one at each club's home. This will make eight games to be played on the Brooklyn rink and ten games on the St. Nicholas rink, Nearly all of the players are now at work, and some of the teams will appear with new material, which will put life into the tournament. The which will put life into the tournament. The Wanderers, the champions of last year, is now a healthy club with 150 members, and with the exception of Hardy all of last year's players will be on the ice again this winter. A. C. Ayers is president, Max Hornfeck captain and Tom Howard head coach. Heyward will again play as goal. Carruthers will be at point, and Howard will play cover point. Souther, last year's captain of Harr rd, has joined this club, and he and Calls than, who played with Columbia, will fight it out for the vacant place on the team. Clarke, Gordon and Hornfeck, who will face off, are the other players.

and Hornfeck, who will face off, are the other players.

The Hockey Club of New York has not yet decided on its line-up. Ellison will play at goal again, and the other old players are at work. Rupert Howard, Benny Phillips, Newberry, De Casanova, Russell, Bryan, Huntington, Spielman, McKinnon and Shannon are the other members of this team. The three last named are new players, but they give promise of developing well.

The New York Athletic Club team has been practising ever since the rink was opened. Williams, who last year played with the Brooklyn club, and Stuart of last year's Heffley team, are trying to make the position of goal. Williams was last year considered by many to be the best goal keeper in the league.

The Crescent Club has not started pracleague. The Crescent Club has not started practice yet, but will do so as soon s the Brooklyn rink opens. Smith, who last year played for Brooklyn, has joined the club, and with the exception of Dobby all last year's players will be out again. Dobby will play again if his services are required to strengthen the team.

CHOYNSKI STILL CLEVER. Old Fighter Outpoints Jack Williams in

Six Round Bout. PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 22 .- Youth, represented by Jack Williams of this city, stacked up against age, personated by Joe Chovnski. in the wind-up at the Washington Sporting Club last night, and the old adage was reversed. Youth was not served, not by a long shot, and had a decision been permissible long shot, and had a decision been permissible it must have gone to the grand old man.

For a brief interval in the first round it looked as though Williams was going to carry Choynski off his feet. Joe broke ground and twice went to the ropes, but suddenly he made a switch. He caught Williams with a straight left-hand swing on the nose, putting that useful member out of commission. That had a depressing effect on Williams, who lost much of that steam which characterized his meeting with the also ancient Peter Maher.

Necessarily Choynski had to husband his resources and did not follow up to the limit the advantage which he had gained. But he did not have to, for Williams himself did not again out loose until the fourth round, when he landed several times on Joe's dial with a straight left. In the fifth and sixth rounds there were some lively mix-ups, in none of which did Choynski have the worst of it.

Billiards. Willie Hoppe, the youthful expert, played two games yesterday afternoon and evening at the Knickerbocker Academy in Brooklyn in preparation for his contest with William Catoon of Chicago, which begins next Tuesday night. He met Mr. Ducas of Baltimore in the afternoon, and in the evening played Harry Post of Canada, defeating both in easy fashion. In both games Hoppe made an average of 20. Ducas could only score 30 points in ten innings, while Hoppe ran off 200 in the same time. The evening game was a repetition of the afternoon contest, as the Canadian amateur scored only 44 points to Hoppe's 200. The scores: Willie Hoppe, the youthful expert, played Lively Bouts at the Cambridge A. A. There was plenty doing in the ring of the Cambridge A. A., Cambridge, Mass., last Monday night. Four bouts were decided, and each of them was interesting. The main bout was between Young Kenny and Matty Baldwin, two local men. They came together for ten rounds and the fight lasted the limit. Both men banged away for dear life and there were many knockdowns. Toward the close of the ecrap Kenny's left was much in evidence. He poked his hand incessantly into his rival's face and had his man staggering all over the ring. But he could not score a knock-out. As Kenny had done all of the leading, he received the award. The preliminaries were just as lively. In the opening bout Young Leroy made Kid Waters quit in one round. In the next Theodore Ryan defeated Young Chisholm on points for six rounds, and in the final essay Tommy English and Kid Barrish went eight rounds to a draw. and each of them was interesting. PRICES SHOW IMPROVEMENT AT THE OLD GLORY SALE.

Two-Year-Old Trotting Filly Rosabel Brings 84,000 on Strength of Fast Trials -J. J. Scannell Disposes of Idolita for $4,850 Some Other Good Sales.

There was a marked improvement in prices yesterday at the Old Glory sale. The quality of the offerings was better and there were not so many remnants of past greatness.

The star of the day was the noted Idolita. 2:07%, consigned by J. J. Scannell, who bought him two years ago at the dispersal sale of Frank Jones's estate for $11,100. Idolita was then considered one of the most promising young trotters in the country, as the price testifies. That the public did not believe his career during the past two years had been an indorsement of former opinion was shown by the price pald yesterday, which was

$4,850. The real sensation of the day was the sale of the two-year-old filly Rosabel, by Adbell, 2:23, with a public record of 2:24%. The precoclous miss had trotted a mile during the Ootober meeting at Lexington in 2:15%, and another in 2:14%. After spirited competition the young trotter went back to Kentucky at $4,000. The next sensational offering went to

New York owner who is prominent in road and matinee sport. It was the pacer Billings, styled the whirlwind wonder. This coming champion, now 2 years old, has paced a mile in 2:09¼ and a quarter mile in 0:29½. This certainly looks like championship material. The youngster was bred by Senator Bailey of Texas, but was developed by J. H. Thayer, Louisville, Ky. Competition was keen for this bud of promise, and finally W. M. Jermyn got him for $3,100.

W. R. Janvier, the New Fork breeder, got a prize in Manzita, by Dexter Prince out of the old time champion trotter Manzinita, 2:16, at 4 years. The daughter is an improvement on the famous dam in size and beauty and her sneed at the same age has been practically the same, allowing for the modern vehicle. At $1,225 she looks like a bargain. The next best sale was the filly Maud F., with a trial of 2:13½ at 3 years. Her breeding is not as fashionable as the daughter of Manzinita, but the speed makes her look cheap at $1,550. D. W. Malonev, the well known Westchester breeder and owner, sent a good consignment into the ring and realized fair prices.

The principal event of the evening sale was the consignment from James Butler's East View Farm, where the Directs get the winning habit. The stock was in the pink of sale condition, and no lot has outshone it in the ring. Arthur Lape, the well known road driver, got the first bargain in the lot in Leonora, 2:12½, a matinee winner, before being sent on the campaign. At $700 she was certainly good value.

Before the East View lot came into the ring good prices ruled. Jeff Modregor, with a record of 2:21½ at 3 years, sold at four figures. The Speedway crack, Dean Swift, 2:12½, looked cheap at $500. so did the grandly bred Jeffrey, by Allerton, 2:00½, out of the champion Elloree, 2:08½, by the famous Axtell, 2:12 at $475.

Chick Tucker to Fight Again. Chick Tucker of this city, who has not been fighting with much frequency of late, has signed articles to box fifteen rounds with Chester Goodwin of Boston before the Apollo Athletic Club, Salem, Mass., on Thanksgiving Day. As the boys are evenly matched, the contest ought to prove interesting. Tucker is a clever fellow, a stiff puncher and game. Goodwin is also noted for his courage and grit. LAWN TENNIS RANKING.

of the United States National Lawn Tennis Association held sast night at the Hotel Waldorf the ranking for the past season was given out. Among those present were James Dwight, Robert D. Wrenn, Richard Stevens, Raymond D. Little, Malcolm W. Whitman, P. E. Presbrey and Holcombe Ward. An unusually large number of players was included in the list made up by the ranking committee, composed of Holcombe Ward, Robert Le Roy and Harry F. Allen.

Champion Holcombe Ward was placed first, with William J. Clothier second and William A. Larned third. These three made up the first class at owe 3-8. Last year Larned was first, Ward second and Clothier third. Beals C. Wright and Kreigh Collins, the Western champion, received the same positions as last year, fourth and fifth respectively. The most notable changes were those of Robert Le Roy, the intercollegiate champion, who moved up from sixteenth to wentieth, and F. G. Anderson, from twenty-eighth to sixteenth, Harry Allen drops from seventh to fifteenth, Willett from thirteenth to seventeenth, and E. W. Leonard from eighth to tenth. E. B. Dewhurst, the Australian, is placed thirteenth.

In the doubles the premier honors went easily to Beals C. Wright and Holcombe Ward, whose record for the season was a succession of wins, winding up with the national championship at Newport. Kreigh Collins and R. D. Little received second place, with the Wrenn brothers third. The ranking follows:

Whitworth's Hackneys and Houldsworth's Hunters Under the Hammer.

SALE OF IMPORTED HORSES.

Some hackney horses brought from England by Robert Whitworth of Market Weighton, Yorkshire, and seven hunters brought over by L. Wilfred Houldsworth of London were sold by William Easton at Durland's Riding Academy last night. All were brought here for the Horse Show. Of the hackneys one, Queen Welcome, won a first and the championship prize. She was withdrawn from the sale. The attendance was very small and those who were there picked up some good bargains. Oakapples, a grand hackney pony was offered, but as $1,400 was the highest bid he was withdrawn. Mr. Whitworth was very much disappointed with his venture.

The hunters were as grand a lot as were ever offered in a sale ring. All had won prizes in England and Ireland; but they did not show well at the Garden, because they were not used to jumping under electric lights. The seven brought $9,150. Mr. Houldsworth, like Mr. Whitworth, was disappointed. He is an enthusiastic huntsman and only sold them because he did not wish to risk them-on another voyage across the ocean at this season of the year. The sales: PROPERTY OF L. Keeler Signs Baseball Contract.

Willie Keeler, peerless right fielder and most scientific of batters, signed a contract with the New York American League Baseball Club yesterday. He walked into Frank Farrell's office in the Fuller building and greeted Farrell thus:

"I'm ready to sign for next year, Mr. Farrell's office in the you want?"

"How much salary do you want?"

"Whatever amount you put in the contract will be all right, was Keeler's response, and a moment later the contract, calling for a fat salary, was signed.

Charles Somers of the Cleveland Club called on Mr. Farrell yesterday. Somers has seen Chase, Griffith's new first baseman from California, play and pronounces him a find.

Fifty-two Autce Will Compete in Climb. A total of sixty-six entries for the various events, of which fifty-two were different events, of which fifty-two were different automobiles, were in hand when the entries closed yesterday for the climbing contest up Eagle Rock hill to-morrow. This is far beyond what the entry list ever has been before, and a great competition is assured.

The events on the programme number eleven, so that every sort of motor vehicle will have a chance to compete against others of its own class. The contest will start at $2.30 o'clock in the morning at the foot of Eagle Rock hill, which can be reached by trolley car from the Orange station.

CONCERNING THEPENNSYLVANIA-CORNELL GAME TO-MORROW.

Quakers, Ithacans, Yale and Amherst Not Shut Out This Season-Something Regarding Junior Captains at Princeton -Brown Will Not Play the Indians.

More interest than usual is taken in the Pennsylvania-Cornell game to-morrow, because the Quakers not only have a chance f going through the season unbeaten, but because they also have a chance of not having a single touchdown scored against them. Early in the season 4 points were scored against the Pennsylvanians by a drop kick, and since then their defence has been good enough to prevent any scoring by opponents. It is up to Cornell to do what no other team has been able to do. The work of the Quakers in practice last Monday was poor; but the slump, judging by previous work, will not be lasting. Just after the Harvard, Lafayette and Indian games the Quakers showed poor form in practice; but in the first two cases they recovered in time to beat the next opponent decisively, while there has been no contest since the Indian game. There was no contest last Saturday to account for the Monday falling off, but the Quakers have shown good powers of recuperation all season.

Cornell will have had as long a pause between games as Pennsylvania. The Ithacans have not played anybody since they met Columbia on Nov. 12.

There has been a wholesale trying out of substitutes in that time, a plan not conducive to the welding together of eleven men, and to the welding together of eleven men, and concentration and coordination were what Cornell sadly lacked against Columbia. The make up of the Cornell team for to-morrow is very uncertain, so far as the public is concerned. Coach warner is trying to restore the speed which was in evidence against Princeton, but which went on a holiday, except in one or two short streaks, against Columbia. The men are built for speed, but it is doubtful if they know as much football as Pennsylvania. While such may not be the case with Cornell, there is nevertheless an injudicious tendency in some quarters these days to lay stress on speed and "machine" play at the expense of fundamental knowledge of the requirement of individual positions and individual self reliance.

knowledge of the requirement of individual positions and individual self reliance.

In no game this season has either Pennsylvania or Cornell been shut out. No team has been able to keep them from scoring, and from scoring a touchdown in the bargain. This is one record that a great majority of teams failed to make. Yale is one of the few that did not fail to get across opponents goal lines at least once, and another team that was not blanked was Amherst. Andover and Exeter were two others not white-washed. Indeed, the scoring abilities of these two academy teams were relatively greater than those of the college teams. They did not fail to score at least twice in every game they played, and that is more than any Eastern college team can say. Such Western teams as Michigan are, of course, so vastly superior to anything in the East that the great Yost might be offended if they are mentioned in the same breath, though there are those who have the audacity to believe that Michigan's speed would be slowed up by a good Eastern team.

"Collegian" writes to THE SUN as follows:
I see that Cooney, who will be a junior next year, has been elected captain of the Princeton eleven. This is ominous for Yale. I have no data prior to 1886, but in the nineteen years—1886 to 1894. Princeton has had a junior captain four times, and each time has won, viz., in 1889 (Poc), Princeton 10, Yale 0; 1893 (Trenchard), Princeton 6, Yale 0; 1896 (Cochran), Princeton 24, Yale 6; 1898 (Hillebrand), Princeton 6, Yale 0.
Each one of the four Princeton junior captain continued to be captain in his senior year. Only one led his team to victory. The record stands, 1890 (Poc), Yale 22, Princeton 0; 1897 (Cochran), Yale 6, Princeton 0; 1897 (Hillebrand), Yale 10, Princeton 1; 1f the fact that Coon ey is to be the next captain at Princeton is ominous for Yale, it is because Cooney is a determined young Hercules and can tear holes in stone walls, not because he will be a junior captain. In the first place, Hillebrand was not captain in 1809. He played on the team that year, but Edwards was captain. Pell was a junior captain at Princeton in 1800 and a senior captain in 1901, and both years Yale beat Princeton. In 1902 Ralph Davis was captain of the Princeton eleven and a junior, and Yale again won.

Yale again won.

SCHENECTADY, N. Y., Nov. 22.—At a meeting held yesterday, Ernest M. Dann of the class of 1905 was elected captain of the Union College football team for the season of 1905-1908. Dann has played left tackle on the team for two years, is a most consistent player, and is popular among his fellows. Only four men will be lost by graduation next year. They are Patton, guard; Kluge, guard, and Raymond and Becker, full backs, making only three positions to fill.

Raymond and Becker, full backs, making only three positions to fill.

ITHACA, Nov. 22.—Headed by a brass band and each carrying a red torchlight, 1,500 Cornell students marched to the railway station to-night as an escort to their football team, which left for Philadelphia to play Pennsylvania on Thanksgiving Day. A greater send-off a Cornell football team never got. It can not be said that Cornell expects her eleven to win against the Quakers, but to-night every one seems certain that they are going to score atleast. The team will line up as follows: Hackstaff, left end; Smith, left tackle; Oderkirk, left guard; Wilder, centre; Furman, right end; Bird, quarter back; Rice, left half back; Gibson, right half back; Halliday, full back.

This does not give Capt. Lynah a piace on his team. The injuries which he received in the Columbia game will very likely keep him on the side lines. Bird has certainly got the quarter back position and if Lynah goes in at all it will be at end for a short time. The substitution of Smith for Cook at left tackle was made permanent to-day. All of the men on the eleven as named above are in the best of physical condition except Full Back Halliday, who has an injured leg. To-day's practice en Percy Field consisted of a long signal drill in which both elevens ran through the formations in good style.

sylvania's football team is about to take the usual slump, which alway strikes the usual slump, which alway strikes the men about this time of the year. The practice against the scrub was very disappointing, the interference was not formed properly, men with the ball ran without any speed, and when they tried end plays, it was a shame the way the scrub ends would throw the runner for a loss. On the other hand, Coach Dickson's men played the game for all there was in it. On a kick, the ball rolled over the 'varsity's goal line, a scramble occurred with Byers of the scrub holding on to the sphere for the first and only score of the day. It was dark before Coach Williams allowed the team to leave the field, and toward the end of the practice, the head coach was playing the pivotal position on the 'varsity. After the scrimmage, the 'varsity gave a spirited yell for the faithfuls and the scrub reciprocated.

To-night the scrub team disbanded after a dinner given in their honor at the scrub house. During the preliminaries, Coach Hedges had the back field and guards working on the dummy, practising the interfering act, Head Coach Williams followed the signal drill, correcting many mistakes, which is indeed discouraging for this late time in the season. However, the head instructor remarked that by Thursday he hoped the men would come out of their trance. Piekarski, Sinkler, Greene and Reynolds did not participate in the line-up, although they ran signals. It was wise for Dr. McCracken to keep them out of the heavy work on account of their injuries.

Annapolis, Md., Nov. 22.—Coach Dashiell would not run the risk of having any of the Navy players injured on the muddy field this efternoon and did not line up against the scrubs. The whole time was devoted to a secret drill in signals and trick plays. Howard, left end, is expected to be kept out of the game on account of a sore leg, and Welsh will take his place. Wilcox will start the game at quarter, the coaches considering him just a shade better than Norton, and Pierson has beaten both Chambers and Rees for right guard.

Rees for right guard.

EASTON, Pa., Nov. 22.—Lafayette alumni have begun arriving in town for the Lehigh game on Thanksgiving Day, and the comparison of the teams is now being gotten down to fine points, the result being that the teams are found to be evenly matched. Lafayette's back field averages 161 pounds and Lehigh's 182. To offset Lehigh's advantage in weight Lafayette has a stronger line, and Shuster is counted as at least Root's equal at quarter. Light signal work is the practice these days McAvoy is out and is playing in the line-up, but he is still very weak and it is feared cannot play on Thursday. This is especially disappointing to him, as he wishes to turn down good and hard, the story that he is going to Lehigh next year. Betting has taken a turn to 2 to 1 in favor of Lafayette.
